My interest in family history is knowing OUR HERITAGE and sharing it with you.

Our son, Collin Hobert started the Holm Family Tree in 1960. Now, almost twenty-five years later, I have updated the history of families, included missing descendants and with records from Sweden verified our early information.

I am proud of our ancestors who left their homes in Sweden to start a new life in America. They endured the hardships of pioneer living and helped to make our United States and Canada.

To all of you THANKS for your contributions. A SPECIAL THANK YOU to Eunice Helgeson for researching the Swedish records, Mark Holmes for the art work on the cover and pictures, Eleanor Schwanebeck and Beulah Holm for pictures, and to Aina Jacks and Albert Holm for the history and biography of Frederik. Without all of your help this history could not have been written.

It has been a challenge to compile "THE DESCENDANTS OF OLOF AND EVA ANDERSON". I have tried to get the correct dates and the correct spelling of names. If I am in error, I apologize and please correct me. I have enjoyed meeting many new relatives through letters and visits and knowing all of you better. My wish is you will preserve this history for your descendants.

OLOF AND EVA ANDERSON

Olof Andersson was born April 10, 1815 to Anders Andersson (1769-1831) and his wife, Helena Olsdotter at Dufveskarr, Svarteborg, Goteborg-Bohus Län, Sweden. Olof's wife, Eva Carolina Andersdotter was born November 24, 1824 to Anders Ericsson (1782-1862) and his wife, Maria Larsdotter (1790-1855)at Heljebo, Moo, Goteborg-Bohus Län, Sweden.

The Swedish practice where a man's child uses his given name, adds "s" and "son" or "dotter" for their surname was used. Thus Olof's children are Olofsson or Olofsdotter. They have been reported to have nine children but the names of only six are known.

Anna Maja Olofsdotter	February 27, 1844
Carl Johan Olofsson	July 31, 1846
Anders Olofsson	January 21, 1849
Alfred Olofsson	May 8, 1851
Fredrik Olofsson	November 17, 1853
Otto Theodor Olofsson	May 7, 1862

Olof Andersson was a farmer who owned land at Heljebo near Lake Bullaren, the largest lake in Bohus Län. He had three large farms with cattle, horses, and other animals. Unfortunately, he lost two of the farms by co-signing loans for other people.

In 1872, their son, Andrew, who was a sailor immigrated to the U.S. Otto followed in 1882 to Murray County, Lake Sarah Township where Andrew was working. In 1891, Alfred and the three oldest children came to the new land. In 1892, Olof and Eva Anderson left their homeland to come to Murray County, MN. Olof died a few days later and was buried in Bethany Cemetery, Lake Sarah Township. Alfred sent for his wife Johanna and their three youngest children to join him at Tracy, Mn in 1900. Anna Maja, Carl Johan, and Frederik remained in Sweden. Eva Anderson died November 20, 1907 and is buried at Bethany Cemetery.

ANNA MAJA OLOFSDOTTER LÅNGSTRÖM

According to records in Sweden, Anna Maja Olofsdotter was born February 27, 1844 to Olof Andersson and Eva Carolina Andersdotter at Dufveskarr, Svarteborg, Goteborg-Bohus-Län, Sweden. She married Ivar Olof Långström on January 11, 1867. Olof Långström was born May 8, 1825.

Six children were born to them. Augusta Långström on February22, 1867, Axel Långström December 28, 1868, Carl Johan Långström January 27, 1871, Gustaf Långström January 22, 1873, Anna Långström March 13, 1875, and Mathilda Långström October 28, 1888.

Carl Johan and Gustaf immigrated to the United States like their uncles had previously. Gustave Longstrom married Emilie Anderson, a sister to his Uncle Otto Holm's wife, Caroline. Gustave was a farmer and lived near Garvin, Minnesota. When he retired, the family moved to Tracey, MN. Carl was a painter and roomed at his Uncle Otto's for many years. Carl never married.

Mark Holmes, grandson of Alfred Holm was in the Air Force Intelligence during World War II and had the opportunity in 1945 to visit Harry Långström and his mother, Mathilda, in Dingle, Sweden. About fifteen years ago, Mark and his wife, Betty returned to visit. Harry had told the newspapers and the headlines read "U.S. FLIER RETURNS". Thanks to Mark, we were able to write Solveig Hermansen in Norway, she is the daughter of Axel Långström, and secure the family history we never had. Solveig writes delightful letters in Norwegian and I have a friend that likes to translate for me. The Axel Långström family lived in Norway.

With the help from Peggy Carlson Holway, Fredrik's granddaughter, we have contacted Lena Leckstrom, granddaughter of Anna Långström She lives at Ashammar, Sweden, her father, Erland Holmberg, Anna's son, lives at Hammarstrand, Sweden.

Anna Maja Långström's husband, Ivar, died September 9, 1898. Anna Maja died February 16, 1936. Eunice Helgeson, great-granddaughter of Andrew Holm has visited the Moo Cemetery in Sweden, where Anna Maja and daughters are buried.

II. Carl Johan Olofsson

Carl Johan Olofsson was born July 31, 1846 to Olof Andersson and Eva Carolina Andersdotter at Dufveskarr, Svarteborg, Goteborg, Bohus-Län, Sweden. On March 1, 1870, Carl married Julia Theodora Tollesdotter and moved to Qville, Sweden.

The researcher is unable to find the family in Swedish records, as some of the church records at Qville have been destroyed by fire.

It has been told that Carl and Julia had ten children but only six lived. We have names of five;

Gustaf
Anna
Tekla, was burned to death in an explosion in Goteborg in 1947.

THE ANDREW HOLM FAMILY

Andrew Holm (Anders Olofsson, as he is indicated in records in Sweden) was born January 21, 1849, at Dufveskarr, Svartesborg, Goteborg-Bohuslan, Sweden, to Olof Andersson and his wife, Eva Caroline Andersdotter. Andrew was a sailor and in 1872 emigrated to America at the age of twenty-three.

On July 27, 1878, Andrew married Anna Sophia Peterson. She was born in Denmark April 25, 1858 to Ole and Maren Peterson. Their daughter, Olivia Christina was born December 12, 1878. They lived in Wisconsin until 1879 when they moved to Murray County. The 1880 Federal Census for Lake Sarah Township, Murray County, MN taken June 2, 1880 tells us Andrew, Anna S. and Olivia C. were living on the John J. Holden farm. Andrew was working as a farm laborer. October 9, 1880 daughter Mary Alvina was born, Eva Matilda was born July 11, 1884.

In 1887, Andrew and family were managing the Homer Whiting farm, located between Garvin and Balaton, near the Ali Lein farm, where the accidental death of eight year old Olivia happened. Mr. Whiting and his friends came out to the farm to hunt and while they were getting their guns ready in front of the house, Mr. Whiting's gun accidently went off that day, August 14th, and shot little Olivia, who was standing in the kitchen window. Andrew became so upset, he quit working for Mr. Whiting and his brother Otto took his place working the Whiting farm. Andrew purchased 203 acres in Section 4, Lake Sarah Township, for $400 in 1888 from the St. Paul and Chicago Railroad.

On March 20, 1888, Hattie Amelia was born. Carl Oscar was born on June 23, 1890. Andrew's parents, Olof and Eva Anderson came to Murray County, in 1892. Olof died a few days after arriving. According to the 1895 census of Minnesota, Eva, his mother was living with them.

Annie died September 20, 1897 and was buried at Hoiland Lutheran Cemetery in Lyon County, Minnesota. On April 12, 1899, Andrew married Katarine (Kate) Johanson who was born June 19, 1869 in Stockholm, Sweden, to parents Alfred Johanson and Kristina Anderson according to the marriage register in Murray County.

In the early 1900's, the family moved to Lyon County, Minnesota and lived on a farm near Tracy. Andrew O. Holm died March 10, 1917 and was buried at Hoiland Lutheran Cemetery near Garvin, Minnesota. Kate moved to Tracy and worked as a housekeeper. In latter years she lived with Otto and Caroline Holm. She became blind before her death and died in a home caring for the elderly on May 1, 1939 and is buried at Hoiland Lutheran Cemetery.

THE FREDRIK OLOFSSON FAMILY

Fredrik Olofsson, son of Olof Andersson and Eva Carolina Andersdotter was born November 17, 1853 at Heljebo, Moo, Goteborg-Bohus-Lån, Sweden. On Sept. 8, a876, Fredrik married Adela Andersdotter. They lived at Kville Sweden. Ten children were born to Fredrik and Adela but only five lived to be adults. Hanna Kristina (1876-1879), Victor Emanuel (1879-1967), Herman Gottfred (1881-1885), Hanna Mathilda (1881-1899), Maria Elisabet (1885-1962), Anna Karolina (1888-1967), Emma (1891-1908), Herman (died in infancy), Carl Johan (1895-1979), Tekla Alida (1898-).

Fredrik Olofsson was a farmer and a quarry worker. He had a small farm. Wild berries grew in abundance. On his farm Fredrik grew wheat, rye, clover, berries, and vegetables. He had a cow, sometimes a calf,pigs, a couple of sheep and some chickens. They had to work hard to make a living. Fir, pine and birch woods were all around and they cooked and heated with wood they cut on the farm. The farm was high so they had a view of the neighbors' houses, school and church. Kville Kyrka was about a half hour away, as were the mountains and high hills of that region. There were several large ponds in the area where the children skated during the winter. One well near the house was used for drinking and for cooking and a more distant well was used to refrigerate their dairy products. There were several large boulders in the back of the house on which were carved runes from an ealier settlement.

Much of the family's food was from their own farm or produced locally. For breakfast they might have eggs, home cured bacon, and homemade bread, butter and jam. At the noon meal they might have fried "Palt". bloodwurst, "kow" (a type of frankfurter), bacon, herring, cheese, porridge, and bread. In the evening, typical foods were chicken, lots of seafood (Herring, mackerel, and lobster), vegetables (carrots, tomatoes, yellow peas, potatoes, turnips, and cabbage), milk and cheese, apples, and pears, and all kinds of berries, including strawberries and blueberries. Despite the variety of good foods there was not always an abundance. On some occasions they had nothing to eat but bread dunked in fish broth.

After the start of the twentieth century, the children of Fredrik and Adela began to follow the previous generation to North America. Maria and Anna came in 1905, with their uncle John Hanson, a younger half brother to Adela). They settled in Kenora, Ontario, which had previously been called Rat Portage for the muskrat fur trade had been important to its economy. Emma followed soon after.

Maria married August Anderson and Agnes was born in 1907. A typhoid epidemic took August in May 1907, Baby Agnes in September, and sister Emma in January 1908. Maria remarried in April 1908 to John Samson and they lived in Kenora. Anna married August Carlson, who died relatively young in 1928. In her latter years, Anna moved to North Vancouver.

Victor followed his sisters to Kenora in 1909, leaving his wife, Frieda, and daughter Svea in Sweden. They joined him in 1910. Victor and his family moved to the United States in 1917. Karl came in 1913 to Kenora, Ontario.

Fredrik Olofsson wore a long white beard. He never came to America. Fredrik died April 12, 1930. Two years later, his wife, Adela and daughter Alida moved to America. Adela lived with her daughter Anna in Kenora.

In 1936, there was a family reunion in Kenora. Victor and his daughters from Michigan, Maria, Anna, Karl and their families were all together again. Adela broke her hip and was hospitalized for an extended stary. She died on December 9, 1941, the day she had been scheduled to be released.

THE ALFRED HOLM FAMILY

Alfred Holm (Olofsson, as indicated in records in Sweden) was born May 8, 1851 at Heljebo, Moo, Göteborg, Bohus-Län, Sweden. He was married on October 6, 1874 to Johanna Bernardina Gudesdotter. Johanna was born March 20, 1851.

Their children were born at Gottersöd, Moo, Göteborg, Bohus-Län, Sweden. They were Olivia Ferdinanda on January 20, 1876, Gerda Emertia December 31, 1877. Oskar Wilfrid September 25, 1880, Alida Maria March 2, 1884, Bernt Gunnar on April 15, 1887 and Johan on January 18, 1890.

Due to the economic conditions in Sweden, many residents emigrated to America in the late 1800's. These hardy pioneers left alsmost everything behind to start a new life. The Alfred Olofsson family was among these. They even changed their surnames before they left Sweden to "Holm" which implied a home. Later Bernt and John made it "Holmes", as they found the incorrect spelling "Holmes" more frequently than any other way.

Alfred Holm left the area of Moo Parish in Dingle, of the province of Bohus-Län, Sweden in 1891. He took the three oldest children; Olivia was fifteen years old, Gerda was fourteen, and Oscar was eleven. They headed for Tracy, Minnesota where his brothers had made their homes. Tracy, was also the end of the railroad line.

In 1900, Alfred had saved enough money to send for his wife, Johanna, and the three younger children; Mary was sixteen, Bernt was thirteen and John was ten years old. After more than three weeks on the ocean, they arrived in Montreal. From there they took the train to Chicago, changed trains and arrived at Tracy, MN having traveled for about five weeks. They arrived in Tracy in the evening and were delighted to see the crowds of people, bands were playing, and witnessed fireworks for the first time. They felt it was a real welcome. Later they found it was because of the date--JULY 4th!

At first Alfred and his wife, Johanna worked on a farm. Then Alfred developed skills in the carpenter trade which became his occupation. Each child had to find work wherever possible. Bernt herded cows until he got a job in a Tracy grocery store at age fifteen. The language was a big obstacle, but they all persisted in learning Enlish. Bernt cited an incident where an affluent lady came into the grocery store and requested cauliflower. He politely told her that they had none. She became indignant and confronted the owner. She maintained that she had seen some in the store and did not need to be told by an upstart immigrant that she was wrong. The owner went to Bernt, who in turn maintained the store had no cauliflower. The lady insisted she was right, so Bernt took the lady and the owner to the shelf and showed the Robin Hood, Gold Medal and Pillsbury Best, but there was no Calliflour! Later, he said it was a new word that he never forgot. Bernt worked his way through the academy, college, and the seminary. He became proficient in seven languages and taught Greek for three years at Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, MN. He overcame the language barrier very well. Oscar died in 1906 of typhoid fever.

When Alfred started to fail in health, his daughter Olivia had him live with her at Little Fork, Minnesota. He died July 9, 1926, and was buried at Little Fork, MN. Johanna lived with Olivia too and latter years in the Home for the Aged at Chisago City, Minnesota. She died July 13, 1936 and was buried in the cemetery owned by the Home.

THE OTTO HOLM FAMILY

Otto Theodor Holm (Olofsson) as he is indicated in records in Sweden) was born May 7, 1862, the youngest son of Olof Andersson and Eva Carolina Andersdotter at Heljebo Moo Parish, Bohus Län, Göteborg, Sweden. The family lived on a farm near Lake Bullaren, the largest lake in Bohus Län. At the age of twenty years, Otto came to Murray County, MN in 1882. His brother, Andrew Holm had come to the United States ten years earlier in 1872. When they left Sweden, they changed their name from Olofsson to Holm, "Holm" in Swedish meant a pennisula or promontory jutting out into Long Lake Bullaren, which was home.

Before 1887 Otto was going through the country with a stallion. At that time, nearly 100 years ago, that was the way as the pioneer farmers had to have many horses for power and transportation. This was Otto's trade and he always had a love for horses. When traveling the country, he would stop for dinner at the hotel in Currie. At that time, Currie had been the county seat for Murray County, but was moved to Slayton, MN in 1886. At the hotel, he met Caroline Anderson, a dining room girl, (hostess and waitress). Caroline was born November 19, 1868, the daughter of Bengt and Justine Anderson, who lived on a 40 acre farm about two miles northwest of Valhalla Resort. Caroline had immigrated with her family on October20, 1884 from Sweden. Caroline was a charter member of the Bethany Lutheran Church. The three acre site was given for the church by Caroline's uncle, John Hobert. Caroline's grandfather and uncle, Peter and John Hobert were early settlers in Lake Sarah township, Murray County and were among the founders of Bethany Lutheran Church, which today is the site of Bethany Cemetery.

After the accidental death of Olivia Holm in 1887, eight year old daughter of Andrew and Annie Holm, Otto took over the farm Andrew Holm was managing for Homer Whiting. This farm was located between Balaton and Garvin, near the Ali Lein farm. Mr. Whiting and his friends came out to the farm to hunt and while they were getting their guns ready in front of the house, the gun of Mr. Whiting accidently went off and shot little Olivia, who was standing in the kitchen window. Andrew became so upset he wouldn't work for Mr. Whiting and he begged Otto to take over the farm. Olivia is buried at Bethany Cemetery.

The Whiting farm was a big place, so Otto went and proposed to Caroline. They were married October 12, 1887. Otto had to go to New Ulm, MN to have wheat ground into flour and also other provisions. It took him two days and Caroline was alone. In September 4, 1888, their first son, Oscar was born. Victor was born December 16, 1894. In 1892, Otto's Father and Mother, Olaf and Eva Anderson immigrated to Murray County. Olaf died a few days after arriving. He was buried at Bethany Cemetery. Otto bought the Southeast quarter of Section 4, adjacent to Andrew's farm in 1893. This farm was homesteaded ten years earlier. Albin was born January 31, 1894 and Arthur was born May 30, 1896. December 31, 1902, their infant daughter was born and died the same day. The present Holm farm, the Northeast quarter of Section 9 was purchased in 1905. This farm is adjacent to the first farm and bought from William Bitley. Irene Caroline Holm was born September 28, 1906.

Otto and Caroline and family endured the rigors of pioneer life and were active in school and church. Otto and his two sons, Oscar and Albin, were victims of typhoid fever, all survived because of the special nursing care given by his wife and their mother, Caroline, and Dr. Germo of Balaton, who came everyday by horse and buggy to treat the sick.

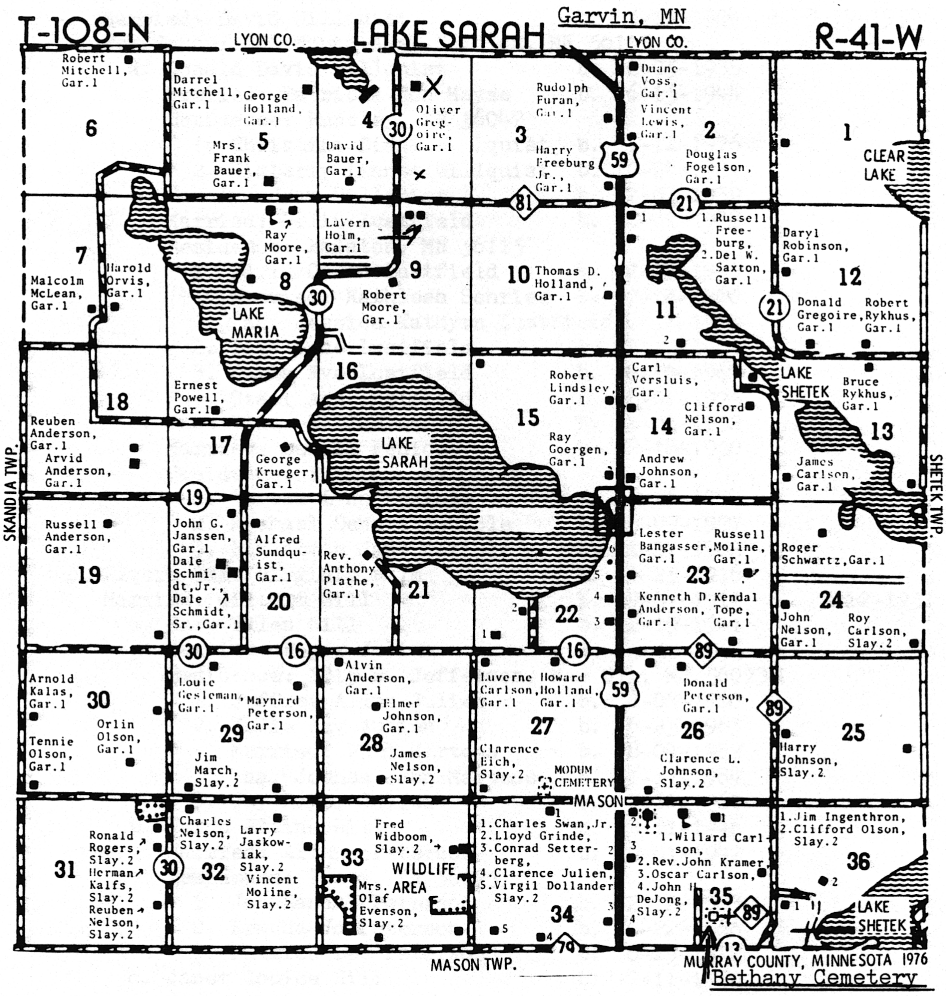

In 1923, Otto and Caroline moved to the city of Tracy. Their son, Victor, purchased the home farm which his oldest son, LaVern Holm lives. In 1926, Otto and Caroline moved to a small farm southwest of Tracy. They moved back to the city in 1928 to Harvey Street where they lived over twenty five years. Otto kept active with his vegetable and flower gardens and repaired shoes in his little shop in back of the house. Otto and Caroline celebrated their 50th, 60th, and 65th wedding anniversaries.

CAROLINE AND OTTO'S GOLDEN WEDDING

Otto passed away January 10, 1954 and Caroline on June 21, 1955 at their home. They were buried at Bethan Cemetery, Murray County, Minnesota..
